2021 JAX Healthcare Forum – DRAFT PROGRAM

Theme

The Post-COVID World
- What will the world look like after the pandemic?
- What do we need to prepare for the pandemic of 2034?
- What will it look like and how will we deal with it?

Wednesday, October 27

8:00 a.m. Registration and Networking; Breakfast

8:30 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
- Edison Liu, M.D., President and CEO, The Jackson Laboratory
- Connecticut Governor Ned Lamont

8:45 a.m. Setting the Stage: The Biology and Epidemiology of a Coronavirus Pandemic. What Have We Learned?
- Susan Weiss, Ph.D., Professor of Microbiology, Perelman School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania
- Albert Ko, M.D., Department Chair and Professor of Epidemiology (Microbial Diseases) and of Medicine (Infectious Diseases, Yale School of Public Health

Population Dynamics of the Pandemic
- Christopher Murray, M.D., D.Phil., Director, Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME) and Chair and Professor, Health Metrics Sciences
- 15 minutes for discussion

10:30 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. Regulatory Landscape and Future of Vaccine Development
- Patti Compton, Vice President, Statistical Programming and Analysis, Pfizer; Member, Pfizer Vaccine Development Team

Regulatory Challenges and Possible Changes That Can Help for the Next Pandemic
- Stephen Hahn, M.D., Former U.S. Food and Drug Administration Commissioner
- 15-minute discussion

12:00 p.m. Lunch
1:00 p.m. Healthcare Disparities and Health Equity During a Pandemic
- Speakers TBD

2:15 p.m. Break

2:45 p.m. The Changing Landscape of National and Global Economies: Economic and Business Landscape Post Pandemic
- Emil Verner, Ph.D., Class of 1957 Career Development Professor, and Assistant Professor, MIT Sloan School of Management
- Andrew Metrick, Ph.D., Janet L. Yellen Professor of Finance and Management, Yale School of Management
- Discussion (15 minutes)

4:00 p.m. Closing Remarks
Stephen Klasko, M.D., President, Thomas Jefferson University and Chief Executive Officer, Jefferson Health

4:30 p.m. Reception
JAX Genomic Medicine Lobby

---

Thursday, October 28

8:00 a.m. Registration and Networking Breakfast

9:00 a.m. The Technology in the Management of the Pandemic
- Frank Ingari, CEO, Tandigm Health

How Singapore Used Technology to Manage the Pandemic: Strategies for Future Pandemics
- Tan Chorh Chuan, M.D., Ph.D., Chief Health Scientist, Ministry of Health, Singapore, and Executive Director, MOH Office of Healthcare Transformation
- Discussion led by Ed Liu

10:15 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. From Sick Care to Health Assurance: New Technologies That Can Change the World in the Face of Pandemics
- Stephen Klasko, M.D., President, Thomas Jefferson University and Chief Executive Officer, Jefferson Health
- Melanie Nallicheri, President and COO, EQRx
- Iyah Romm, CEO and Co-Founder, Cityblock Health
- Conor French, General Counsel, Zipline
- Othman Laraki, Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder, Color
12:30 p.m.
Lunch and presentation

Investment Horizons Post-COVID: Online Business Interactions, Wearables as Health Monitors
- Jenny Rooke, Ph.D., Managing Director, Genoa Ventures
- Karen Harris, Managing Director, Macro Trends Group, Bain & Company
- Discussion led by Jenny Rooke

1:30 p.m.
Concluding remarks
Edison Liu, M.D.