Commercial Purpose means: any use to perform contract research; any use by or on behalf of a for-profit entity, and production or manufacture of products for sale, lease or other disposition for consideration. Industrial sponsorship of academic or other nonprofit research is specifically considered a Commercial Purpose, regardless of the nature of the work performed under such sponsorship.

As a service to the biomedical research community, The Jackson Laboratory ("JACKSON") provides MICE to Recipient solely for research use and not for a Commercial Purpose. Each Recipient of MICE from JACKSON agrees that MICE and any by-products derived from the MICE, including but not restricted to crossbred mice, shall be used by Recipient solely for internal research and shall not be sold or transferred or provided to any third party. Each Recipient further agrees not to use any agent or other third party to provide breeding or other services with respect to the MICE without the prior written agreement of JACKSON. The original source of the MICE is the INSTITUTION.
